

Conditions of participation – Painting of the year 2024

Version 16-5-2024

General objectives

Painting of the Year is an annual competition, organized by De Kunst Collega's B.V. (the Art Colleagues). The goal is not to determine what is the best painting in the world since that is very subjective and subject to many variables, but only to establish annually what is the most appreciated painting amongst all the contemporary paintings that participate.

Furthermore the contest wants:

- a. to increase the appreciation for painting in general;
- b. to increase the (name) awareness of the participating painters in particular;
- c. to create the largest possible (online) overview of contemporary paintings.

Procedure

Until September 30th 2024, artists can upload their own painting(s) (maximum 4) for participation on www.paintingoftheyear.com. These are paintings by living artists. The subject and size of these paintings is free. For more information see below: Participation.

First round professional jury

Between October 1st and 31st 2024, the professional jury will evaluate all entries by giving a grade (digital and anonymous). This will result in 40 finalists. These are works by 40 unique artists. (When someone ends up in this top 40 with multiple works, the work with the highest grade will be chosen.) The finalists have to send or bring their nominated work to Roermond before November 15th. For more information about this, see Delivery of the 40 finalist paintings.

Second round professional jury

Between November 15th and 30th 2024 the professional jury will assess the paintings of the 40 finalists and determine the top 10 and the winner of Painting of the Year 2024. So on December 1st the top 10 and the winner will be known – but they will only be communicated at the opening and prize giving ceremony on January 18th 2025 at Galerie RRMND. The 40 finalists get a special sales exhibition at Gallery RRMND with one extra painting (see also: Exhibition 40 finalists).

Audience votes

During these two rounds of the professional jury (from October 1st to November 30th), i.e. for two months, the audience can vote on its favorite work. (See below for more explanation under Voting.) The painting that has the most votes on December 1st is the winner of the Audience Award and may also participate in the exhibition (See below under Exhibitions for more information).

Voting

Voting is only possible via the website www.paintingoftheyear.com from October 1st until November 30th. Everybody can vote on different paintings but only 1 vote per painting (1 vote per e-mail address). This vote must be confirmed by means of a link sent by e-mail and only counts after activation of that link (for security reasons). Only natural persons can vote. In case of abuse of the voting the organization can decide to disqualify artists (see also Exhibitions). The organization has built in various safeguards at the front and back of the website to prevent or detect malpractices. For example, multiple votes from the same domain (name) are neither possible nor allowed.

Participation

Participation in Painting of the Year 2024 (www.paintingoftheyear.com) is open to (living) painters from all corners of the world and from all levels, from beginner to advanced. It is not allowed to participate with a painting by/on behalf of an already deceased painter.

Criteria

The professional jury assesses the paintings based on the following criteria: originality, eloquence, composition, use of materials and technical application.

No correspondence can be entered into concerning the jury's verdict.

Delivery of the 40 finalist paintings

The 40 finalists must deliver their selected painting (+ 1 extra painting) to Gallery RRMND before November 15th 2024 (details will follow at the beginning of November):

Bredeweg 10-B 30

6042 GG Roermond

<https://www.rrmnd.nl>

This can be done by delivering the work in person on certain days, later to be determined and communicated via email to the finalists, or by sending the painting by post or courier (at your own expense). The 40 finalists will receive all the details and possibilities in due course by email. Your paintings must be fully ready for exhibition upon receipt, i.e. framed (or stretched) and provided with a solid hanging system.

Exhibition 40 finalists

At the end of November, the jury will convene and judge the 40 paintings from the finalists. From this they select the the top 10 and the winner.

The 40 finalists get to exhibit their painting + the extra painting at a special sales exhibition at Gallery RRMND from Saturday January 18th until March 1st 2025.

The prize giving ceremony will be at Gallery RRMND on January 18th.

If a painting is sold during the exhibition there is a 30% commission for Gallery RRMND.

Afterwards the unsold works will need to be picked up at the gallery's address (by the artist, a representative or a shipping company arranged and paid by the artist).

If a finalist (and/or exhibitor) cannot be reached (in time) by the organization (or indicates himself that he does not wish to participate in the exhibitions), the organization may decide to add another artist to the selection of finalists (or exhibition). The same applies in case of malpractice (e.g. in the voting round).

Insurance

From the moment the paintings are in the possession of Gallery RRMND they are covered by the insurance taken out by the organization (that is, from the moment the painting is received from the participant until the moment the painting is picked up again by the participant after the exhibition(s)). Per damage case there is an excess of € 200.

Picking up the paintings

Each participant (finalist) is responsible for picking up his own painting after the exhibition. All participants will be informed in time about the possible dates, time and location. If a painting is not picked up after a designated date, the ownership rights expire, and the organization can freely dispose of the work.

If the paintings are not collected on the indicated day and time, packing, transport and storage costs are due. Packing and transportation costs are € 75 per painting. The storage costs are €10 per work per 24 hours for the first seven calendar days, starting on the communicated day of pickup. Thereafter € 5 per work per 24 hours (amounts include VAT).

If a painting is not collected three months after the exhibition, it shall revert to the organization for no consideration to which the participant agrees upon registration.

Finally

The organization of Painting of the Year 2024 can at any time make changes to the course of the competition or end the competition, the participant does not derive any rights and/or claims regarding the course of the Painting of the Year competition.

In cases not provided for in the terms and conditions, the organization is entitled to decide and act as it sees fit. Works that do not comply with the regulations can be admitted to the website and contest but are not eligible for the prizes. The Dutch law applies to these conditions of participation.
